NEW FACES AROUND TOWN

In recent months you may have noticed new face around town. With the resignation of the Water Superintendent David Forest, the city hired two new Public Workers. Charlie Writer will be the new Waste Water Superintendent, he is in the beginning stages of schooling to receive his license . Jesse Gibson is our new Water Superintendent, he has finished his classes for his license. We are working hard to make sure everyone's city services are working properly. Inside City hall things have change too. JoAnn Ohlhausen has joined the city in May as the new City Clerk. If you have any questions concerning council meetings, business licenses, or the city in general stop by and chat with JoAnn.

Candy, candy in the bag
It's that time of year
Funny clown, witchy hag
Another house is near
Ding dong ring the bell
Trick or treat is said
And if it does not go so well
